

Karthik Jayaraman

Artist Bio

Karthik Jayaraman is a first grader and a self-taught artist. He was introduced to acrylic painting in a family paint night at his school when he was 5 years old. Since then, he has been exploring different styles and modes of coloring and painting, acrylic on canvas standing out as his favorite so far.

His love of nature and greenery inspires his art work and he enjoys working with lustrous and radiant colors. His curiosity to try different painting techniques and mediums are reflected in the variety of his work. With a keen interest in painting, and his passion to master the techniques, he continues to self-learn acrylic painting on canvas in his leisure. Post-pandemic, he is looking forward to beginning his formal training with the hope to become an artist when he grows up.