Homelessness Task Force Report

- Plan Overview
- Program Ideas:
 - Public Policies
 - Milpitas Homeless Help Center
 - Work and Self-sufficiency
 - Temporary Housing
 - Homelessness Prevention
 - Accountability

Homelessness Plan Overview (DRAFT)

Milpitas Homeless Task Force Plan

Public Policies

- Purpose: Prevent crimes against unhoused and housed residents and restore confidence that the streets are safe. Reduce homelessness in Milpitas.
- Enforce the law, prosecute property crime, increase police patrols, install new security cameras
- No open drug consumption, require rehab programs
- Stop panhandling at street intersections and supermarkets
- Provide temporary housing options to reduce the number of unhoused residents living on the street
- Priority for Milpitas residents at Hillview Court Apartments
- Example: Cities of Houston and Culver City

Milpitas Homeless Help Center

- Purpose: increase public information on homelessness resources, programs, and concerns
- Staff person at City Hall who can respond to questions and receive community feedback with language accommodation (e-mail, hotline, or walk-in)
- Webpage with local and county resources, oversight committee schedule
- Community involvement and awareness of programs
- Example: Resource fairs and pop-up events

Work and Self-Sufficiency Programs

- Rewards for litter pick-up and job training
 - Purpose: Create a work program to help with self-reliance, self-esteem, pride, dignity and to beautify the City.
 - Stage 1: Provide gift cards or food vouchers to unhoused residents who clean their own encampments, parks, freeway entrances, and other key areas
 - Stage 2: Motivated candidates are referred to SCC work program to train for professional skills
 - Reach out to neighborhoods, corporations, local organizations to volunteer and support the program
 - Refer workers to programs through NovaWorks, Goodwill, Downtown Streets Team and more
 - Example: City of Elk Grove, NovaWorks

Temporary Housing Programs

- City-sanctioned encampment or safe parking areas
 - Purpose: Transition to permanent housing. Assistance with self-reliance, self-esteem, pride, dignity, etc.
 - Safer, more stable alternative to encampments; transitional
 - RVs and tents with showers, toilets, laundry, running water, garbage pick-up and food service
 - Assessment and case management
 - Example: City of Fremont, Mountain View, Union City

Temporary Housing Programs

- Temporary shelter and resource center for families and seniors
 - Purpose: Transition to permanent housing. To build independence, quality of life, self-reliance, hope
 - Create a new congregate shelter with beds, food, daycare, employment resources, financial coaching and more
 - Possibly use an abandoned church building or vacant warehouse
 - Assessment and case management
 - Public-private sector collaboration
 - Example: St. Mary's Center in Oakland

Temporary Housing Programs

- “Tiny home” transitional housing
 - Purpose: Transition to permanent housing. Assistance with self-reliance, self-esteem, pride, dignity, etc.
 - Faster to construct and much lower cost than permanent housing (shipping containers can be prefabricated, are movable and scalable)
 - Non-congregate housing allows for more privacy and security
 - On-site services and amenities
 - Assessment and case management
 - Example: City of San Jose, Mountain View

Prevention Programs

- Connect with McKinney-Vento households; expand childcare
 - Purpose: Identify and assist at-risk residents, youth, and MUSD McKinney-Vento households and increase child-care options
 - More robust outreach to McKinney-Vento households
 - More connections to services and organizations like LifeMoves
 - More outreach in various languages
 - Expand day care options so parents can go back to work and avoid falling into homelessness
 - Example: After the Bell and YMCA after school programs

Accountability

- Local Oversight Committee

- Purpose: Ensure tax dollars are spent efficiently on homelessness programs
- Create a 10-12 member committee to oversee City spending on homelessness
- Committee approval for all expenditures
- Review 911 calls and crime reports related to homelessness

Recommendations

- Receive report from Homelessness Task Force and provide direction on Task Force program ideas.

A photograph of the City of Milpitas building at dusk. The building is a modern, curved structure with a light-colored facade and large glass windows. The interior lights are on, and the sky is a deep blue. In the foreground, there is a fountain with several jets of water spraying upwards. The overall scene is well-lit and modern.
